VisionWeb

QA Engineer:

Summary of Job Title: This position requires an individual who is a self-starter that succeeds in a fast-paced environment using an Agile/Scrum methodology. This role requires proven, hands on test automation skills and experience.

VisionWeb Highlights:
- Leading player in industry
- Largest customer base
- Strong in market
- Easy to sell product
- Ground floor opportunities
- Fast-growing

VisionWeb Perks:
- Monthly Events (trivia, scavenger hunts, holiday celebrations, etc.)
- Fully stocked kitchen (food and beverages)
- Monthly employee appreciation celebrations
- Office sponsored professional massages
- Great Benefits package
- Monthly breakfast tacos (Torchy's)
- Scenic campus (office backs up to River Place Wilderness/Trails)
- For additional information please visit www.visionweb.com.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities: Please note that other duties may be assigned by your supervisor

Test Automation Skills
- Executes regression, functional, smoke and integration automated tests
- Consistently demonstrate ability to understand business requirements and work with QA leadership to identify and prioritize test cases that should be automated
- Designs, develops, and maintains test automation software (programs, scripts, data sheets)
- Understands how to work with source code control tools (branching, versioning)
- Understands concepts of software architecture and framework
- Is able to work with development team/QA leadership and come up with appropriate test automation strategies for the various parts of our applications.
- Ability to provide technical direction and approaches to QA leaders.

QA Skills
- Exceptional ability to design test approaches supporting a dynamic Agile development environment
- Provides input into software integration testing and release of the final product
- Works closely with development team members to troubleshoot and perform root cause analysis
- Demonstrates ability to communicate test strategy and explain test case objectives to teams or team members not familiar with QA methods
- Demonstrates ability to create application workflow tests; expanding beyond low level functional test cases used during new development efforts
- Communication Skills
- Consistently demonstrates the ability to communicate and document in clear and crisp formats
- Superior ability to manage your own day-day work efforts, and communicate roadblocks or issues
- Embraces the ability to work under pressure and tight deadlines